

Children Take Front and Center

Staff members at The California Arboretum Foundation (CAF) are co-planning with the American Horticultural Society (AHS) its third annual Garden Symposium for Children, "Gardens for Youth: Nourishing Mind, Body and Heart," scheduled for June 27-29 at the Pasadena Conference Center and on June 30 at The Arboretum. The day at The Arboretum features outdoor workshops and children's gardens along with a keynote speaker and a conference celebration. Registration received prior to June 1, is $235. After June 1, $285. Full time students pay $150. Contact the AHS directly for registration and more program information at 800/777-7931. Space is limited so make your reservations now! 🌿

Peacocks Are White Cast Iron

Perfect Peacocks make perfect andirons for the Queen Anne Cottage. Arboretum Associate Curator of History, Sandy Snider, made a fortuitous discovery recently when browsing through antique shops. Sandy asked Volunteer, Joyce Travis, for her opinion on the century old find and the purchase was made. Volunteer Bob Saddoris discovered that the andirons are made of white cast iron, the purest form of iron, highly brittle, somewhat rare, and quite collectible. Bob restored the bronze toning that overlays the white cast iron and cleaned and repaired the mica sheets behind. Look for the andirons in the Music Room of the Queen Anne Cottage below a peacock-framed gilt mirror. 🌿

Peacock Cafe... Simply Unique

Kathryn Santoro and Lynn Spencer re-opened the Peacock Cafe on January 16 to sunshine, a glistening garden, and lots of visitors who soon became satisfied customers of Simply Unique Catering, featured at The Peacock Cafe. Friends and neighbors for at least 15 years, Kathryn and Lynn collectively have more than 24 years in the food and beverage industry. Kathryn's management skills and Lynn's creativity produce reasonably priced menus which invite repeat business. As busy mothers of teenagers and twenty-somethings, they are assisted by husbands both at home and here at the Cafe. Even with a seven-day-a-week business, they find time to pursue personal interests in floral design, pencil sketching, and "tole" work. As you take in the view from the Peacock Cafe Terrace, enjoy something Simply Unique. 🌿
