

This place
no time we have been in this city a Mr Thayer - who is I think a neighbor of yours at Cambridge and is I don't say known to you. He came down I believe to see how we manage things in our English Court - upon what I hear I fancy that he was struck with some differences between England & America in that respect. He says with me every day

find me very pleasant.
I did not my kind
affection to Mrs Gray.
I am ever yours
So long when I am answering you kind notes, but had my hands of late & now I go to write your lines.

Fry, Edward. 1883. "Fry, Edward, Sir July 16, 1883." Asa Gray correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/223828>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/250422>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Arcadia 19th Century Collections Digitization/Harvard Library

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The Library considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection

License: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.