

Orono, Maine,
July 10, 1891.

Dear Dr. Watson:

I trust that you are getting along well
with your work this summer,
and that there is plenty accumulating for me to do.
Although the weather as a whole has been unfavorable, yet I have devoted all of the last two weeks to laying in a stock of the rarer Lichens, and of the Mosses.

I have ended my work here
at Orono, by a fifteen mile tramp yesterday, and one of ten miles today.

Fernald

Tomorrow and Sunday, I shall make constitute my vacation from botanical work.

I expect now to leave home next Monday morning, and stop for a few days collecting at York, Maine. I shall probably go to Cambridge one week from tomorrow (Saturday) or early the following Monday. In case you wish me to come earlier, please let me know at the following address;

Care W. R. Howard,
York Corner, Maine.

With kindest regards to yourself, Dr. Barnes and Miss Clark, and Miss Kittie
I am very sincerely yours
Merritt Lyndon Fernald.

Fernald, Merritt Lyndon. 1891. "Fernald, Merritt L. July 10, 1891 [to S. Watson]." Asa Gray correspondence
