the door to commercial dishonesty - The practice of giving scientific looking names to garden varieties is most objectionable, but here again the trader comes in and says a plant with such a name is worth so much more than one with an English name - One can't blame a man for wanting to turn an honest penny.

"Dirnean" dispute - I hear privately that Lord Hatherly the arbiter has given his verdict in favor of the late President's acts I am well pleased he should be vindicated in the matter though I fear he did not act with
