Prof Asa Gray
Barbadoes

I found it impossible to visit Boston on my late visit home, and to my great regret, was disappointed in my expectation of seeing you.

I did not, as I intended send you my plants, because I found of Shady with a couple of very good botanists in my native town that it was probable I had nothing valuable to you. I am obliged to you for two letters I received from you, one in N.Y. and one at hand and I pray you will now keep the promise made in them and advise me of the progress of Guernsey &c. I am very glad the Crotonia reached you in good condition. I hope you will be able to make some money of them
