In reply to your kind note enclosing my friend to visit you little I can believe to Mr. Howe and just heard from Sir John Williams to enquire of his having written to this house instead of to my own. The matter must wait his Lady to be allowed to visit you in the afternoon, as Mr. Quaker has appointed 5 o'clock for the time visiting his place at Wandsworth. I hope his change will not inconvenience you.

Believe me

Yr very truly

J. F. Myles

I must have your plan. as I am nursing up a little pet one of my own - There is a most zealous Professor. I think you will see tolerable success of Botany in a little time
