

May 15 1880

Dear Dr. Gray.

I returned home to find that Prof. Cook had left - at my house an invitation to later tea at his house and meet Prof. Fisher. I write simply to tell you of the emphatic and unqualified commendation which both of them had for your lectures. The literary style and the knowledge of philosophy and theology especially impressed them both. Professor Fisher spoke of the great interest Prof. Mosler took in them. It appeared that Mr and Marsh had canvassed the field in connection to see if there was any one else who could speak so as to command the respect of both parties and their conclusion was that of present - your about alone ^{in that ability}. There are numerous of the younger scientific men whom I know are drinking in the spirit of these lectures and the hopefulness will be of and of.

Whatever dig has been my given) Prof. Hooker and Prof. Fisher are magnified in their expression of your merits.

Yours faithfully
G. R. Vigney.

Wright, G. Frederick. 1880. "Wright, G. Frederick May 18, 1880." Asa Gray correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/225450>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/253917>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Arcadia 19th Century Collections Digitization/Harvard Library

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The Library considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection

License: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.