

Dear. March 2<sup>d</sup>

My dear Jap

I have had up that bit that with touch of illness, - a slight touch of pleurisy & a sore week. - but write just to thank much for letter received today (your two enclosed letters have been posted)

& to say that in one week

I hope & think I shall send you a few more letters important additions & specimens for the "origins". The first & most considerable one is for h. 126.

If you can answer me before & got them inserted I

the L. by glad - It is of 100 pages length. - There are a few of the most distinct parts later

5 - 1000 4 handed a little.

I am told. 1000 as usual

C. D. Davis

There is a small book which I

with some notes

and a few other things

thank you much for kind
