My dear Mr

Your abstract of my book is immediately sent. You have given everything, — you have quite misinterpreted it.

By Jove I ought to write you a grudge!

I earnestly it could not in my opinion be improved.

Very many thanks, also, for the specimens, & for not bothering me for bothering you so much. In about a week's time I shall be among them with great interest. I shall send you in Frank to New on Wednesday to look at specimens of Leucornia & some of the Phormica etc.

I long to get this work off my hands & so shall publish in 1886 to profit of every such family. —

I had despatched title of Orchi book, but have ^{to money}
now written to send you of book complete copy.

I am of your criticism & suggestion in your two reviews are very good.

Yours gratefully
