

New Haven. Dec. 29, 1881

Dear Dr. Gray.

Very many thanks for the kind invitation which you and Mrs. Gray have sent us. We can not well leave home until January has closed, but if any part of February would suit your convenience we shall be charmed to visit you for a few days.

And I shall be glad to do up the "little professional job" you speak of.

We have much enjoyed Farlow's visit, though I am sorry he has had such unpleasant weather.

My wife writes in
happiness a New Year can bring.

Yours faithfully.

Samuel C. Eaton.
