

New Haven. Nov. 3, 1884

Dear Dr. Gray-

I know of Fendler's death only from the published notice of the memorandum in Dr. Engelman's reliquia. With you would write to the U.S. Consul at Port of Spain - or other proper official. I suppose his half-brother may be still living in Trinidad.

I send you a 10 page autobiography of Fendler, which may be very useful. In fact it may appear best to print some considerable part of it.

I leave that to your judgment & to Mr. Conby's.

We are pretty well here -

My wife has been overworked for a year past with the duties of Secretary of a Training-School for Nurses; but now is nearly through with her time of enlistment.

Berry was much run down for a year & more after having whooping-cough & mumps - combined - & does not now go to school - but I think she is slowly coming up again -

I can not see how any man who knows the difference between truth & falsehood, wiggling subterfuge & manly honesty, can vote for Blaine -

I shall not only not vote for him, but I shall vote for his principal opponent -

Yours faithfully

Samuel C. Eaton

Eaton, Daniel Cady. 1884. "Eaton, Daniel C. Nov. 3, 1884." Daniel Cady Eaton letters to Asa Gray

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/225922>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/255317>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Arcadia 19th Century Collections Digitization/Harvard Library

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The Library considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection

License: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.