

Prof. Asa Gray, Cambridge.

Dear Sir,

This is to inform you that Mr. T. C. Potter, who was here last week, has, at my request, taken the 2^d Vol. of your illustrated genera intended for Mr. Barton who will not return for some time. Mr. P. tells me he has paid this second Vol. in advance.

As soon as I have been paid by Miss Haynes, Dr. A. Smith & the Penn. Hospital, I will send you $2.00, which will settle the whole amount of your invoice. I have offered Oakes' collections to several amateurs, James & Mr. Potter included, but all find that there are too few rare things for the price.

Very respectfully

E. Durand
