Sir Thos Geland
KILLERTON,
EXETER.
Nov 1/87

Dear Professor Gray
your kind remi-
nis of your visit
here (I wish to hear more of you) is very gratifying
But I had already received a copy
of your Science
Religion and Society

America

The copy which has come to my hand I am subscribing
the name of my brother. (though not exactly) his name
is Henry Wm. Leavitt
of Andover.
though I believe his family sometimes

add Dyke.

I have been some
mending the book
to Bishops & Clergy
& laymen.

It appears to me
for the most complete & well balanced
Statement of the question. & the reference to the two

Secum & Religion
to my brother
I wish papers
on. If it does not go to waste
the duplicate copy
shall be well
circulated.

With much love
I am your very true
friend
William

I wrote to you
thinking you were
still in London,
I ~~wrote to you~~
on looking again
at your letter I saw
my mistake
I will send to
my brother
may I so far

Genl Mr. Burroughs
on your kindness
as to add that ~~any~~
~~the~~ ^{the} titles of any American publications on Agriculture Specially on the practical bearing
of Scientific knowledge would be most welcome as
a contribution to our West of England
journal.

KILLERTON,
EXETER.

I am desiring to go on hearing
from you Botany
but I have been very much occupied lately

Unless I hear from you that you have already sent
a copy of your
