My dear Dr. Watson:-

Your p.c. is at hand

We have the Scores Musc. from Lapham's library and want only the supplement.

It may interest you to know that I have had a sufficient appropriation not only to equip an anatomical and physiological laboratory fairly but also to provide a good working library, including complete sets of some of the more important journals. I have also been allowed to furnish my own working table with all the necessary literature in the bryological line, including of course the Bryologia Europaea, so that I feel quite "set up" -

Does Mrs. James still hold the James herb. for sale? I cast longing eyes in that direction but I can't afford to get it just now I fear. I hope it will not be allowed to go out of the country and I would like to hear of any proposed sale before it is consummated.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely yours,

C. R. Barnes

"I wish that I could make you an offer that would tempt you from Madison to Cambridge.
I do not know what the fee would be, but would be glad to make a proposition if that suits you?"
