My dear Sir

I have but a moment to reply to yours of the 11th inst. as our mail Boat of twice a week just comes and goes.

I am thankful for your kindrup in distributing the Flora. I don't exactly know what you mean by "These 5 I present myself" If you mean that you expect to pay for the copies that is not to be thought of

Over

I want, as soon as materials reach me, to get up a circular to be sent broadcast over my whole heart, and you will greatly oblige by keeping me posted as to the opinions of the Pres H - Send me what you have to say in Silliman - Glad to find you have at last found your tongue for hither to you have been as shy as a Ripton trout Ravenel is out in the Charleston paper & in DeBow's Review.

I do not now expect to visit the North this year unless on a flying visit to N York in Oct.
