

Sauvage is here, wonderfully better for his voyage. He spent yesterday with us, from 1 till 7 p.m., driving & driving, and I afterwards went with him to the Opera, after which, at 12 - he seemed very ill, the heat & humidity

& Crawford or her dying shortly, as his physicians think, of a Cancer.
Her husband goes over in kindest regards to your wife and yourself, and I am as always

Very truly Yours

Jno. B. Eichard

Blous b tales went b the b ing blous blous waf waf ob blous i met bl - moud ob waf waf waf ob, maf in blous waf ob doft, moud ob to ob, ob thounds ob stafy you, moud ob

Paris Mar 31. 1857 Answered by Dr. Gray, and contained in my Dear Dr. Gray,

I ought, many & months ago, to have acknowledged your very great kindness in giving me such excellent letters of introduction, they have been more valuable to me than anything I took from America.

Mr Debando was very obliging invited me to dine with him and showed me all his herbarium - the most interesting at present is, however, Switzerland

Your letter to Dr A. Braun opened his house to us, and gained me access to every book in his library that I had time to see in Berlin. A more excellent library could not be found, and man or a more agreeable family is hardly to be found. We received much attention from them, and spent Christmas evening with them. Our acquaintance with them and with our admirable minister at Berlin, too.

Vroom, made our residence in that city, constantly pleasant and. —

At Munich I became acquainted with Von Hartenius, the Secretary of War with great affection and admiration; and I say that Mrs Grey is the most agreeable American lady he had ever seen. When I told him that you were a friend of mine, he became very kind, and showed me every attention in his power. He gave his hearty approbation of Palmer and all the other members of the Convention, as does

I have done. I delivered your card to Dr. Delepeuf, because I was so unfortunate as to fail of getting the bakers on David Banks Wharf (you promoted him). A gentleman as Boston said he would get them for me, but probably did not succeed in finding me at the time of our departure. But I have been almost every day in Paris, & I expect to see.

I wish I knew what I could do for you which would give you pleasure. If there is anything you want in England, a letter to me, care of the Calment, Broad St.— will secure my efforts to obtain it.

Emerson, George B. 1857. "Emerson, George B. Mar. 31, 1857." Asa Gray correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/222795>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/259687>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Arcadia 19th Century Collections Digitization/Harvard Library

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The Library considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection

License: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.