

Boston - May 27. 64

My dear Dr Gray,

What a pleasant letter this from Mr Church. How wonderful you are kindly inclined towards a Church which contains such men. When I am constrained, as I hope not to be, to receive contributions of less than $100, you must let me hear from him with Mr Church's. And what a grand idea this of Edwards to make, in your Herbarium, a collection of all the diatoms of the world.

Since I told you, Mr Wm L. Ballard has sent me $200.

Yours very truly
Geo. B. Emerson
