

Emerson

Sturton Is. Apr. 24. 70

Dear Dr. Gray,

Many thanks for your introduction to Bolander whom I shall certainly try to see.

As to the trees, I found it would be inconvenient to go so far, and so expensive to go and plough at Bagger's Place, that I persuaded Judge Lowell to let me have some land to put in the trees.
You are so kind as to offer me. — I was there yesterday, when they came. They are in admirable condition and larger and far more numerous than I expected. Good care will be taken of them, as the Judge is a lover of trees.

With kindest regards and farewell to Mr Gray
Oay truly Yours
Geo. B. Emerson
