

Kew Sept 15 1881

My dear Watson,

I found Dr +
Mr Gray at home + pretty well. Dr Gray says that he has been falling away but I do not detect it in him.
If he goes with all or his guests as he did with me,
taking such a long walk + just when he, of course, felt he might be at the Compositae,
I can readily believe he would soon lose flesh. Mrs S
+ he have been as kind as possible.

Goodall

in showing me about.

I enclose for despatch to

Mr. C. G. Atwood
Ag^t Mutual Life Ins^c Co.
Tufts St.
Boston, a

check for forty, & will ask you to forward it to him, asking him
to send ~~receipt~~ premium receipt to

John C Madbury.

Saco Maine.

I also enclose for deposit to my credit in Charles R. Nat.
Bank a bill for $50.- I am

Sorry to send it by mail, but think it best. As I shall need it for meeting the check sent it had better be deposited soon.

Will write often -
Yours ever G. L. F.
