

Dec 23^d.

Brookline.

Dear Doctor,

I arranged at a meeting Friday of the Agricultural Institute for Mr. Watson's money. ($1000). It will be paid to the Treasurer, and you can get it at any time.

Engelmann sends, with other things, some roots of Helianthus hispidus. What are to be shared with you. Dawson has,
I suppose, already sent them over.

I hope you will all have your merry Christmas;
but what dreadfully cold weather for it!

Faithfully yours,

C. S. Sargent

Professor Asa Gray

Cambridge.

Sargent, Charles Sprague. 1837. "Sargent, Charles S. Dec. 23 [no year]." Asa Gray correspondence
