

Nov 24

Brookline.

Dear Doctor,

There is doubt the Trustees will do what we want them to do. I will bring it up at the next meeting: and endeavor to bring it to the last: but be prepared for being wrong.

I have just come from New York. I saw Thurston and some of his friends.
It is thought that with me

(Yours and mine) assertions something really good can be done for Thurber; and I shall try and see you in regard to it in the course of a very few days.

The two notes have been settled for; three hundred dollars of Thurber's other debts have been paid and thus is still a balance on hand of about eight hundred more.

Now I want to get $5,000 to pay off half the mortgages on the Huntington place, over due the rate of interest upon the remainder. I believe that this can be done.

Yours faithfully,

C. S. Sargent -

Sargent, Charles Sprague. 1837. "Sargent, Charles S. Nov. 24 [no year]." Asa Gray correspondence
