

41
Contrivels House
Hereford
March 7 1850

My dear Sir

I can get no tidings whatever of the boy you kindly sent - to sail as you said in the middle of Dec last. Would you therefore be so good as to enquire for me by what ship it was sent off and to whom consigned - I cannot get any answer from Messrs Wilmer and Smith of Liverpool and the boy is far too valuable to be neglected

I find I have made on at two blunders among the Californian plants of the Voy. of the Tulpener which I shall correct in St. Vastus.
One very ridiculous one is owing to the gentleman who corrected the press in the first instance and which I did not perceive in correcting the second which is Vitap and Viticore for Vitis and Vitium

Yours very truly
George Deubian
