

25, WILTON PLACE.
London S.W.

April 7/60

My dear Gray

I have to acknowledge the receipt of yours of 26 March with the enclosed bill for £ 29. 15. 6, and to repeat to you my most cordial thanks for your successful efforts in disposing of so many copies of the Geneva for us.

In your letter of March 10 you desired me to send by post three more copies of Vol III, Part I. — in your account you include two only. I trust you received the three safe. If your order was a mistake of three instead of two pray keep the additional copy by you and if you should dispose of it only send me the money when you have some opportunity

I work steadily my hours day at Brocklebon but I am afraid it will be long before we can begin practising again Foster is making progress with the Psalm

Yours very sincerely
