

25, WILTON PLACE.

London S.W.

August 11/60

My dear Gray

I suppose this letter will just reach you before you start and anticipating the great pleasure of shortly seeing you & Mr Gray I have little to say except that that pleasure will be still further increased by the prospect of seeing also Mr.
& Mrs. Alphonse de Candolle who are coming over here to meet you next month.

I have just finished Breckan and am now at Lyperman after which I shall take up from Mexico whilst Horder is hard at work at Salina

Ever yours

George Beathan
