My dear Gray

I much pleased to receive yours of the 2d Sept with such cheerful accounts of yourselves and of the progress of your great work and other matters. I have so far recovered that I have no positive illness to complain of - but am now stationary very weak in the legs - unable to move from home except for a carriage drive in the pds - and now that cold weather is coming on the only change I can look forward to are worse ones. I have not been to bed since early in June and am quite unable to do any botanical work.

You ask about the exact price of Gaura Plasteran. For the three volumes complete abt the board the ready money cash price is £ 6.15.0 (Publishing price £ 8.2.0) Postage required would be — 3.8

Total £ 6.19.0 and on receipt of a sight bill on a London banker I would immediately send off the work a. above supporting the state of my health allow me to see to it — but I trust my that my health is hereforward so precarious that I can scarcely recommend to any one to trust to this mode of procuring the work a. there might be some delay if I had to refer it to the New authorities to send it off — I think it would be better now to get it through the bookseller

We have been much grieved at the Death of Oswald Her a most amiable man besides his great merits as the first popular botanist

All seem to be well and flourishing at Kew

Ever your sincerely
