

off to New York on Wednesday. But we hope that this will not be our only visit
to this neighbourhood.

With my father's very warm regards, & my renewed thanks &
sincere respect,

Believe me

Yours very sincerely
Rose Kingsley

Dear Mr Gray

I find it difficult to express my thanks to you, for the honour you have done me, in sending me your delightful book, & for the kind words which accompanied it.

Pray believe me, & do not think me importunate

when I say, that there is no one in America whose acquaintance I coveted more than yours & judge therefore of my appreciation of your kindness to me.

Will you thank
Mrs Gray for her message & say that if I may I should very much like to call on her tomorrow afternoon on the chance of finding her at home.

My Father also hopes & has a few moments
with you again ere we leave pleasant Cambridge but alas he will have to give up the pleasure of coming to your meeting on Thursday night
for we are ordered
