

Mcigawa Falls
April 25/74.

Dear Dr Gray

Forne you many apologies as well as thanks. But since I received your kind note & its enclosures, I have been as usual drifting about from place to place, & at such a rapid rate that I have hardly reflected my letters. However, here we are at auction till Monday & I hasten straight to you for the notes which will be invaluable to us in the West.

We hope to leave Chicago on the 11th, as Mr Cyrus Field has asked us to join him & a pleasant party who are going with him, for ^{the} Californian trip.

Is there no chance of your coming West also this summer?

With my father's & my warmest regards, & many thanks for so kindly remembering your promise but

Believe me ever yours sincerely & obliged

Robt Kingsley
