ALLECHENY OBSERVATORY.

ALLECHENY, PENNSYLVANIA.

My dear Sir.

That your letter of the 7th ult. has not been sooner acknowledged, has been due to my absence in New Mexico, and not to any lack on the part of Mr Goode or mine of appreciation of ~~the~~ kind words of sympathy which you transmit on the part of members of the British Association.

If you have occasion to write to Prof Newton

I hope you will express Our joint thanks on behalf.

of the Institution in its great loss.

I have returned, strengthened I hope, for the duties of the coming winter, but before I go to Washington to resume my duties as Asst Secretary I expect to visit Boston, and to avail myself of your kind counsel in one or two matters on which I shall be glad to obtain it. I am obliged for your message of kind remembrance from Sir Wm B. Rowman. and I trust to find you all the better for what must have been a very pleasant journey

Most sincerely Yours
S. P. Langley
