

Dr Asa Gray Anne
July 15th
Dear Sir

Hackney nr London
9 Jan 1846

We have duly received your kind Letter of 15 Nov as also the Box of Plants by the Francis Ann and the small box by the hands of Sir W. Hooker, they were generally in excellent condition and we beg to return you our grateful thanks for the very liberal manner in which you have supplied our wants.

We shall be much happy to send you out any thing which you may be desirous of obtaining if you will kindly favour us with a list, we believe you prefer having plants in the spring, so that there will be plenty of time when we get your answer for us to send them.
we remain

Dear Sir

Yours very truly

C Loddiges & Sons.
