

To Dr. Barlington's son
Cambridge, Mass., June 10/1873

My Dear Sir

It is very kind of you to present Mullicks Tritanum Nepalensis to me as a memento of your lamented Father,
and I prize it much as such. But, as it doubtless would have gone to the Chester or Cabinet (tho' probably of no use there, nor to anyone but me) if I had not borrowed it, I shall not feel quite happy if I am not permitted to add as much as it is worth to me to the Library of your Society.
Could you let me

have a list of such of my own publications
as that, library now possesses. There may be some thing which I could add.

Who wrote the excellent manual which you sent me a copy of?

It was in ~~much~~ to the purpose that I have used it for the notice in Silliman's Journal, - making large extracts, and adding only some prefatory
remarks.

Believe me Very truly
Your obliged Asa Gray

Gray, Asa. 1863. "Gray, Asa June 10, 1863 [to Darlington]." Asa Gray correspondence : letters from Asa Gray to various individuals
