

I shall not be sorry to be reminded now as to what men to work again. I have been playing immensely
Yours very sincerely

The Deacon of St. Paul's London, June 25

Dear Mr. Watson

I must get off a letter in reply to yours of the 4th for which I thank you.
Please mail enclosed to release. It contains plans of the Oxford & Dart. Hist. Elth. Not be wonder to know whether triumphic or not. I had barely time, during our busy days at Oxford to look it up in the She-rardian calendar.

I send by mail a page of Times with a brief notice of the Oxford Commencement.

and the Cambridge Publ.
Oratio Specios. Keep the latter. I have been having - as you may imagine - a high time, and have too we are much crowded with guests.

I have not been able to get Dr. to know yet,

I hear that only one copy of my Elements came. I expect 1 for know & 3 for my 3 students.
"Palmer & Grayson's" Govt. Let him know that Sympathetic must be called more!

Gordell wrote of dear old Broott.

Savalys rd. xiii - I did not receive what you paid me for it to Nisley, thinking he owed me as much or more. Nisley is very near where I am now visiting, to-morrow morning I will see him and settle.

Shan, at last moment wants to repeat my Memorial of Bushman - which made delay, but I hope is done in this.

We are so glad your sister is getting well. Sad to hear about Ward's sickness.
Please find out how he is, and let me know.
