

will seem to have full smiles in drawers & clouds again! I like & hear of all your little troubles, it makes me seem at home with you - How soon we shall have a chance to talk, I hope!

I enclose a note for butter to Langusit - Perhaps you will like to add - One letter of yours is quite lost, I fear - One I should have had the middle of August -

Brother writes from Paris, going to the race.
I think the 3 George 10th rather cut England -

I have been thinking that if Lizzie & Fitch's eyes continue bad, it would be a good thing for her & Anna to come & spend the winter with us & be under treatment - Of course it is too late to have an answer from you - But & leave it to your discretion to make the proposalition if it seems wise, & necessary to arrange for their winter - They might come the middle of December, or later as they like -

Much love dear, to you, & to you all -

Ever faithfully, sincerely -

Eduardo - Oct. 7th 1869.

Very dear Sue,

Sept. 14th - Your faithful, Nelly letter was forwarded to us here by Dr. Gray. The one in which you say we have not answered your questions - I know it often seems troublesome about letters, but I always try to look over your letters & answer anything you say. There are so many things & write about I cannot often respond about subjects when I would like - And if you would sometimes how much labor it was to write to the "mean" little notes you would at have used the ugly adjectives - I cant write too long at a time, of I write too steadily esp after busy days, I have restless nights - And I do have take so much time to read! I quite despond when I see P. & K. - Those questions of yours you have already got my answers to, as well as I could.
