NEW YORK, June 23rd 1899

My Dear Lavenport

I shall be at the Gray Herbarium Harvard on Friday to Monday next clearing up the last of the "snags" in my U. S. collection of last winter. Should you run into Boston during those days I should be glad indeed to meet you there. I leave here to-morrow morning.
How did the U. S. ferns come out, you received them O.K. I hope some time in April.

With best regards I remain Yours very sincerely
O. S. Miessner
