

very satisfying manner. It is open four afternoons a week and we average about 150 visitors a week. This last week there were about 400. Considering that it is on the fourth floor of the building I think this is doing very well.

The baby is a baby no more but a little girl, walking and beginning to talk and busy with many interests all the day long.

Give our kindest regards to Mrs. Deane and tell her for yourself. I may see you in Cambridge at Christmas time, as I expect to make a flying visit there for the American Philological Association meeting on Dec. 29-31.
Cordially,
Arthur Stanley Rand.

Urbana, Illinois

23 November, 1913

My dear Mr. Deane:-

Your good letter from Shelburne ought not to have gone so long unanswered, but you know how things will arise to delay and postpone one's intentions. The news of your collections in Shelburne is good, and the little Vater sounds especially interesting. We have only three (I think; my list is uncertain): V. Cracca, V. villosa, and V. angustipennis regalis (I believe).
I added a good number of things this last summer.

and plan for additional things next year. I think I shall get me a bicycle to assist in getting to some of the less accessible towns. I had one once and found it of use. The panel post is helpful for sending plants, also. The places which I have in mind especially for next summer are further west in Enol and Dartmouth College Grant, some in the vicinity of Lost Nation (Lancaster and Northumberland) and a look into the four townships still remaining without any collections, is only one of which is there a light was.

I'm glad you liked the looks of our bungalow and hope next summer you may find us ensconced in it when you pass through Randolph. I hope you went up on the piazza and saw the view which we think is especially fine. We can see the mountains on all four sides of us, as few houses in Randolph can do.

We have called on the Trevels and they are in and we have found them very agreeable. I shall hope to see more of him.

I have been very busy with the extension of the Classical Museum. We have had an appropriation for this year of $5000 and it is most interesting work to select the things to be purchased and install them when they arrive. The number of visitors to the Museum has increased in a

Pease, Arthur Stanley. 1913. "Pease, Arthur Stanley Nov. 23, 1913." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/252349>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/269891>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.