Dear W.D.: -

I was glad to get your card and to know all is well in Cambridge. It is most kind of you to write me, as you do, and I think that, unless something arises to prevent, I shall plan to spend parts of next week Friday and Saturday at Cambridge, looking up some things in the library, etc., and going to the lecture. At what hour do you sup on Friday? If anything should keep me from going I will let you know early.

Till I see you all best regards,

Hastily,

A.S.P.
