Dear Mr. Deane: -

Many thanks for your Christmas greeting and best wishes for the coming year! You were so cordial in your invitation to me to stay at 29 Brewster Street that I am wondering whether you are going to be all filled up at the time of the next Club meeting? I had thought of going from here on Thursday, 1 Jan., and spending Monday and Tuesday nights about Boston or Cambridge, returning here Saturday noon (on the train I took before). Now if you have any other engagement for the week or yourself then which would make it inconvenient I can say so frankly, for I shall feel pleased rather than hurt to have you tell me truly. If it were convenient, however, I should probably come on a train reaching Boston (South Station) at 6⁰⁵ pm. Thursday, and Cambridge as soon as convenient thereafter. If that were too late for you I can easily get my supper in Boston. Thursday evening I thought I might perhaps make one or two calls in Cambridge which I wanted to make; Friday am. work at the Library; in the pm. make some more calls and go to the Athenaeum, and in the evening go to the M.B.C. with you; Saturday am. work in the Library.

I trust that you are well and enjoying the beautiful winter weather. It is lovely here. My regards to Mrs. Brew.

Sincerely yours,

A. S. P.
