

Montreal, June 20th 1885

Dear Mr. Deane

I hope you don't think I have utterly forgotten your last letter; but I have been so busy with my Summer Class and with the Botanic Garden, that I have had little time for correspondence.
Thanks for the picture. It is Capital.
You can get Macoun's Catalogue Parts 1 & 2 through any good bookseller in Boston; it is published here by Dawson Brook, & should not cost you over 50 c. If you have any difficulty, I can send it on for you. The Geological Survey is very cheap of its publications, and I have had to buy my own copies of the Catalogue so far. Our Garden is going on very nicely, and I am just now getting out plans for the plant houses, which we hope to commence next spring.

Most particular friends in kind regards to Mrs. Deane and yourself.

Very truly yours

D. O. Peckham
