

Maplehurst Farm,

Lancaster, Mass., Aug 24 1908

Dear Mr. Deane

If I hear of a position such as Mr. Rand could fill, I will let you know. There are a great many men in the ^{same} box now; but I look for better times after election.

My family is scattered all over the country. Jack is on a trip in the North West, enjoying the Canadian Pacific scenery! He is having a great time. Mrs. Ray, Natalie and Duncan are at the Seashore and Evelyn and

Maplehurst Farm,

Lancaster, Mass., Aug 24 1908

We have been on a continual round of visits. I have held the fort at home.

The Chinese birds, mammals, etc were very interesting. I helped unpack them, so I had a chance to "shake hands" with them all. There are over 5000 birdskins.

I had a letter from Mr. Brewster, who was at Bethel with his quack doctor. He said he had been suffering from Sciatica and had not been able to do much writing.

I hope you will be able to make us a visit this Autumn with Mrs Deane as we all look forward to it.

Sincerely

John E. Thayer

Thayer, John Eliot. 1908. "Thayer, John Eliot Aug. 24, 1908." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/252841>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/270566>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.