

Rose Cottage. Dec. 23th. 1885.

Dear Mr. Davenport.

I have duly received your postal card and to-day I take pleasure to tell you that I have mailed for you a package containing your Desiderata. viz:

massilia macropoda	6 specimens.
Aneisina mexicana	6 "
notholena candida	10 "
pellea flexuosa	7 "
— aspera	4 " 37.

For which I will be glad to receive ~~in~~ exchange some of the species I have marked in your list. I have marked all my Desiderata so it would be easier for you to make a choice of them. You have ~~many~~ many duplicates, I would have sent more of the pellea aspera, but unfortunately, it is the only one, I am short of specimens.

if you like it better you can pay me (3 dollars) but I would prefer a haz.

Hoping that the specimens will please you, I wish you a strong
Christmas and remain,

Truly yours.

J. Revere.
