

Shelburne, N.Y.
June 26, 1918.

Dear Collins:

Here I am again.

Came up June 22 and am located for the season. Your cards of June 13 from Minneapolis and card and letter of June 17 from Madison came only and were much enjoyed. The last card is numbered 22. Think of that!
Your trip is drawing to an end, and you must tell me just what sort work you have been doing on these thousands of miles - I'll send this to Providence "Hold."

I stay in Cambridge over Commencement and am glad I did. The

I enclose a sheet of blotting paper you may not have seen exercises in the Theatre were brief & impressive, while the session of the Alumni in the Den. was most thrilling.

Addresses by Pres. Lowell. Ex. Pres Eliot. Gov. McCall, Pres Gordon of the Alumni & Lord Reading were fine. Lord Reading, who is Lord Chief Justice of England, gave a thrilling address, no notes, just from his heart and I tell you it was very fine indeed -

Well, to you Shelburne isn't far off and you may come this way where you will be welcome - At your closure continue your cards. Ever truly
Yours
Halter Deane

Deane, Walter. 1918. "Deane, Walter June 25, 1918." James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258625>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/273904>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.