

21 Brewster Hall,
Cambridge, Mass.

Oct. 16, 1900-

My dear Collins -

I am closing off the Ktaadn account tonight, & as I neglected to give you a receipt in July & send you one now that you may have the thing bound up according to business principles.

According to the generous dictation of the others in the party your share & mine for the trip is $50 each, while Churchill pays $$$ for & Kennedy & Williams divide the remaining expense, beyond that of Camp Kennedy.

I think we are very fortunate to have such friends!

Micently Yours
Nemitt L. Freed.
