

GRAY HERBARIUM OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY,

BOTANIC GARDEN, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.,

March 4, 1902.

My dear Collins -

Unless you protest too violently I am going to put you down on the programme for the Club meeting Friday night to talk on "Hair-Cap mosses".

I remember that you had such a talk planned for the Jasseln meeting & since you didn't give it there I hope you will consent to let us have that (or something else off hand) at the Club meeting. It is a long time

Since you have given us a mass talk & everyone likes them. Don't say no!

Sincerely yours,

Hewitt L. Fernald,

I have reserved you
half an hour -

M. L. F.

Fernald, Merritt Lyndon. 1902. "Fernald, Merritt L. Mar. 4, 1902." James Franklin Collins correspondence
