

GRAY HERBARIUM OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY,

BOTANIC GARDEN, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.,

June 27, 1902.

My dear Collins -

Thank you for your kind letter. The expense of my Canadian trip will make it impossible I fear for me to get the new Camera I had hoped for. So if you will arrange to let me have prints of such things about Cutler &c. as we find it worth while to get I shall be glad.

The Washington Co. sleeper goes on the 7 p.m. train from Boston, not the 9.45 as I supposed. I have a berth reserved for you. Before I can actually secure the berth I must show a ticket to East Machias, so if you wish I will buy a ticket & secure the berth. ; then you will have no trouble about it.

Truly Yours,
Nesitt L. Fernald.
