

THE PINES, BLUE HILL.
READVILLE, MASS.

June 27. 97

Dear Mr Collins,

I note what you say as to your proposed vacation,
and I shall have to postpone my call until after my return from Mt Mansfield: we hope to go on Thursday next & remain a week. So as you are to be away the July 4th week, we can't meet at present.

Perhaps I shall stay at home a few days
of the week beginning July 10th & perhaps I shall rush off immediately to the mountains. The latter is more probable, if it's hot.
But I shall come down some day.
giving you sufficient
notice to head
me off, if it's best.
Last year's trout carried off to New York all the mosses
on Mt Mansfield,
but I expect some have grown up since,

and I shall bring back all I can -

I do hope we shall have good weather,
It's everything on a high mountain.

Very truly yrs.
Geo. G. Kennedy

Kennedy, George G. 1897. "Kennedy, George G. June 27, 1897." James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258528>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/275037>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.