

Readville

14 Mch 1901.

Dear Collins,

Ever since I came home fr Maine I have been trying to see you at Cambridge
but have not been able to arrange it.
If you are coming up
next Saturday, can't you arrange to stay here with us on Friday night the 15th
tomorrow in fact.

I shall come out
with Mrs Kennedy
on the 4.45 and I believe the train
that also reaches Readville at 5.19
comes fr Providence.

I want to talk over
our proposed Rhodora
article & show you
my list of the Katahdin mosses,
please bring up
your list too.

I got a few also in the snow on trees at Luxmoor.

very truly yrs

Geo. G. Kennedy
