Dear Mr. Collins; I want to tell you how pleased Mrs. Kennedy was with the pussy cat: we had at Canfield a very beautiful Angora & noticed many in the town; you were extremely fortunate to catch the "picture" at so favorable an opportunity. We have admired the other photos also: you were kind enough to offer me any of the Aroostook one I might desire, but I will wait abt. accepting your kind offer until I have again looked them over, perhaps I may visit some of the "Gorge" areas.

We are here for a few days but I do not expect to do much collecting, only to look upon the mountain, which never lose their charm, but the foliage is no finer than at Blue Hill, Mrs Kennedy joins me in cordial good wishes,

Sincerely yours
Geo. G. Kennedy
