

THE PINES, BLUE HILL,
READVILLE, MASS.

28 April 1904.

Dear Collins:

In talking over a map of the Willoughby region to go with the Rhodora article Dr.
Robinson & I thought
if you could draw
one from some good
modern copy I can find, with any suggestions I might add
from my personal knowledge, it would be a much better
result than any photogravure of any existing county or town map —

I hope you can find time to do this, and
as a matter of business too — I would like to come down on Monday next if you are not busy and I find train reaches P. at 8.58 am. which I could take.

Meanwhile if you
can find in the College library or otherwise any map
of Orleans, Essex,
or Caledonia County
Vt, it would help,
as Willoughby lies in Orleans Co, but at the exact junction
of the three.

I shall bring with me the ~~cap~~ map of Northern Vermont
recently published
by Geo. H. Walker & Co
of Boston —
Some of the old fashioned 40 year ago maps
of the Vermont counties are very accurate & with detail that
many modern maps
have omitted.
If I can do so, I
would like to return
on Monday by the 12.07 as I should be in town in the afternoon.

Very truly yrs
