5 Mch 1905

Dear Collins

The little stickers
came to hand this morning: please
accept my thanks:
you will be amused
at the Box I am sending some of the Genus covers in:
I had it made to send my Sphagnum
to Le Roy Andrews, and as I shall have no further
use for it, thought I would pack some of the covers in it.

"I was a poorly made Box as you will observe. It contains say one third of all the covers I have to send. If I am swamping you
with them, protest,
and I will refrain.

Yrs G. G. K.
