Dear Collins:

Thanks for the Migula address.
Do I understand that the book was sent direct to you
from the Publisher
at Gera, R. Germany (wherever that is!!!)
and did you send
payment beforehand
for it, or how did you 'do abt paying for it. I suppose
no duty even if it comes thro' a Book-Seller's hands.

I have already
sent to Dr Braithwaite
for the Pleurocarpi
using the address
you gave me.

I sent Farlow last
week a well fruiting
moss from the
ditches down on the low lands here
& I called it Hypnum
stellatum, which seemed to fit it
as well as any
other description,
but he says "it's
a sticker"
but I don't find

that name in any book, so I shall await his further
study of it.
I thought sterile
Hypnoids were
the only things he would call
"stickers".

I saw that it differed
a good deal from stellatum, & that's why I wanted
his opinion of it.

I'll send you some
if you would like to have "a sticker".
