

Readville, Mass.

19 May 1910

Dear Collins, your letter & the very interesting
pamphlet came safely:
I am greatly surprised at the great interest taken in Arbor Day in your state, as I have not observed anything like it in Mass.: the "Program" as it is modestly called is well worth preserving: Char Faxon & I want to come & see the big Chepachet Pine as none of our N. H.
measurements equal it:
I hope you can give us a day before you
are called away for the summer.
I have not found

Chepachet on the map,
so must depend on
you to give me the locality.

We are all well at home & have been rejoicing this winter
in Mildred's return from India & much interested in her narrative: she has had a unique experience in her camping in Kashmir at the foot of the mountains.

I hope we may see you here before the summer duties take you into the wilderness.

Sincerely yrs

Geo. G. Kennedy
